Ritual is an exhibition of ceramic pottery and installations showcasing a modernized take on Jewish culture and practices.

Frederick, MD—Hood College is pleased to present Emma Sandler and her series of artwork titled, Ritual, in the Hodson Gallery located in the Tatem Arts Center from May 6 to 13, 2022. The exhibition opens on Friday, May 6, from 5-7 PM, with artist talks at 6pm. The Hodson Gallery is open daily from 9:00 am to 7:00 pm.

Sandler is inspired by the scientific and spiritual realms and her body of ceramic works retell the story of ancient and modern Jewish history by refurbishing long-standing traditions and weaving in personal connections. Ritual follows Sandler's exploration of a 5,000-year period, and examination of family documents and artifacts to work toward ancestral healing.

Sandler is graduating from Hood College with an Art and Archaeology major, a concentration in studio art, focus on ceramics; she will earn her Bachelor of Arts degree from Hood College in the spring of 2023.
