

ADAM L. WALKER

401 Rosemont Avenue, Frederick, MD 21701
Home: 555.555.5555, Campus: 444.444.4444
careers@hood.edu

OBJECTIVE Seeking an entry level career in the fields of Web Design, Web Programming, Software Engineering, Computer Science, and IT.

EDUCATION Bachelor of Science in Computer Science May 2011
Hood College, Frederick, MD

- Minor: Web Development
- Cumulative GPA: 3.38; Dean's List

Related Coursework: Computer Science I&II, Web Development I&II, Web Usability, Principles of Software Engineering, Data Communications and Network Security, Web Development Practicum

The Weisberg Collection - Senior Project Spring 2011

- Designed, implemented, and tested a database for storing over 230,000 documents concerning the JFK assassination
 - Utilized PHP and MySQL to create a web page frontend to search the Dublin Core based database
-

SKILLS

Computer Programming

- C++, Java, C, MIPS32 and MIPS64(Assembly Language)
- Self-Teaching PHP, MySQL

Web Development

- Strong Background in HTML coding, and CSS
- Emphasis in W3C HTML code compliancy

Leadership

- Residential Assistant: Led meetings with 35 residents twice a month, organized events, counseled and advised residents
-

EXPERIENCE National Institute of Standards and Technology, Gaithersburg, MD
Internship

20010

- Evaluated graphics and physics engines in order to determine the future virtual testing environment for the Unified System for Automation and Robot Simulation (USARsim)
 - Built a website using Joomla! content management system in order to facilitate updating by the USARsim community
-

ACTIVITIES Boy Scouts of America, Eagle Scout
