Your Learning Options

Classes begin August 17

TRADITIONAL

with remote components

- Scheduled class meetings on campus, usually 2-3 days/week
- Given physical-distancing requirements, faculty may use classroom and remote delivery options
- Interact live with your professor and other students

HYBRID

- Scheduled class meetings, usually 1 day/week
- Given physical-distancing requirements, faculty may use classroom and remote delivery options
- About half your usual “class time” is replaced with work that can be done on your own schedule

ONLINE

- No required scheduled class meetings—all coursework takes place online and on your own schedule
- Optional interactive sessions with your professor and other students
- Same amount of work and commitment as other classes

Be sure to check your course Blackboard site for information from your instructor about the expectations of each course
